The Old Ways Are Broken

Attorneys deserve better than outdated referral models.

Referral Fee Traps

Pay-per-lead and referral fees eat into your revenue before you've done a single billable hour.

Time Wasted Chasing

Cold outreach, networking events, and ad spend drain time you could spend serving clients.

Algorithm Black Boxes

Ranking platforms reward ad spend, not competence, burying qualified attorneys under paid listings.

How Law119 Works

A reverse marketplace built around your expertise, not your wallet.

1

Client Posts a Matter

A prospective client describes their legal need on the Law119 platform — practice area, jurisdiction, and details.

2

You Browse & Self-Select

You browse available matters that match your practice. No algorithm decides for you. You choose what interests you.

3

You Make Contact

You reach out directly to the client and handle the engagement entirely on your own terms.

LAW 119
JUSTICE FOR ALL

Built for New York Attorneys

Everything designed around how you practice - not how a tech company thinks you should.

Zero Referral Fees

Flat monthly or annual subscription only. Your fee arrangement with clients is entirely yours.

You Control the Relationship

No platform intermediation after contact is made. The attorney-client relationship is between you and your client.

English, Mandarin & Spanish Support

All matters may be supported in English, Mandarin, and Spanish at launch, helping attorneys connect with more New York clients.

Attorney-Controlled Design

No rankings, referral fees, or pay-to-win placement. You decide which matters to pursue.
